

Achievement:

- Practiced at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, Michigan, since 1980, rising to Chairman of
- Radiology. Specialized in Interventional Radiology and managed the Ultrasound department. Later practiced in Saginaw, Grand Blanc, and Rochester Hills.
- Involved in the American College of Radiology and ultrasound societies as a Physician Reviewer for accreditations. Served as Medical Director of Ultrasound at Oakland Community College for 15 years and was appointed Clinical Assistant Professor at Michigan State University in 2009.
- Authored six peer-reviewed publications and engaged in real estate with companies like Hashmi
- Associates. Philanthropically, I co-founded the Sadiq Sarwar Foundation, improving education and healthcare in my village.

Things you are proud of:

I take pride in my late wife Anjum, our three children, and grandchildren. Grateful for 40 years of healing patients and mentoring medical students. Proud of wife Shawn for embracing Islam and supporting my philanthropic efforts.

Family:

Wife Anjum Sadiq (deceased); 3 daughters: Amber, Sabah and Asma; & 7 grandchildren. Remarried to Shawn Sadiq (2020); 2 stepsons; & 3 step-grandchildren.

