

Achievement:

- Private practice with an academic appointment at University of Connecticut: 1982-1995, Associate
- Clinical Professor of Surgery
- Volunteered in Lahore Pakistan at PIC: 1990-1995
- Started heart surgery programs at National Hospital, Doctors Hospital in Lahore and Shifa International at Islamabad.
- Private practice: Lahore, National Hospital, Doctors Hospital: 1995-2003
- Private practice: Oklahoma City, 2003-2009
- Toledo, Ohio, 2009-2018
- Academic appointment at University of Toledo, Assistant Professor Surgery
- Assistant Professor Cardiac Surgery, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, 2020-2024,
- Retired from full-time practice on May 30, 2024
- Continue to help a cardiac surgery program, an affiliate of the Medical College of Wisconsin
- International Dean, Pakistan Society of Cardiovascular and Thoracic Surgery
- Founding member, Johns Hopkins International Cardiac Surgery Outreach

Things you are proud of:

Contributions to cardiac surgery in Pakistan and mentoring young surgeons.

Family:

Wife: Susan | Children: Razi, Nyla, Siraj, Anisah

